

The Light Path
Lecture #12 of Year Two

The Light Beings Speak

I ask the divine light guide us and protect us. I call forth the beings of light and love, truth and wisdom. And I ask now that all that we need for the divine enfoldment of our souls, on all levels of our existence, manifest peacefully and lovingly.

It is very important to understand that each of you is an integral part of creating the consciousness that organizes your world, lives and future, and heals your past. In this busy world, you might feel powerless or insignificant as just an individual. Let us remind you that each thought, each intention, each awakening of consciousness reverberates light and energy out into the energetic fields, the vibrational fields and the dense fields of etheric and earth form. You are a creative tool of spirit, and when you practice grounding the energy from the spiritual level through your structure and sharing it with the other structures of earth (the form and energy and animals and people, the gases and elements), when you share this, you are choosing to organize the energy of your world. You are not a passive creator. You are, as all the great teachers and prophets have said, a co-creator of existence.

As the beloved Jesus has said, “You will do as I do and greater.” When you hear the spiritual teaching “We are one”, it does not mean that the ascended beings are choosing to be one with you just to comfort and ease you. It means that you in the present moment, in the present form of existence, in the present body, no matter how limited in energy it may be, are an active participant in creating reality and therefore, one with all of the conscious beings of all dimensions that are creating reality.

As you develop your intuition and your attunement to your non-limited thinking, you can access -- through intention -- the wisdom, the thoughts, the energy, the love that you choose to activate in your life. Oh, how we hear earthlings say, “I’m too tired. It’s all too confusing. I’m too overwhelmed. I can’t go on.” These are all feeling states of your ego but not the truth of your core being. Your core being is not limited to the energy in your physical body or the thoughts in your mind or the emotions in your life. Your core body is an ever-present connection, a living state of the “I am one” truth. “I am one with the creator. I am one with universal energy. I am one with universal mind. I am one with the core truth in all created beings.” It is from this space that you seek peace, that you can love those who are unlovable to your ego, that you can let go of your fears.

For what is fear? It is only a momentary forgetting of the “I am one” space. Sometimes you get discouraged because with all the work you have done in your spiritual workshops, you look at your physical, spiritual and emotional life, and it is not always what you think it should be. At these times, it is important to look more into the deep heart and to view your life from this space of knowing and loving, to see the truth that form is temporary, form is a temporary dream of the ego perception. It is designed to be temporary, to be imperfect, to provide opportunities for the self to seek a greater meaning in life. You are exactly who you should be in your incompleteness so that you are called to remember the constant infinite perfect oneness of the spirit. Play with form, enjoy form, love your imperfectness and see that it is created by you, your greater self, for but a moment of existence. The more you remember this, the more you will be able to create more joy, beauty and spiritualness, reflecting in this temporary form.

Do not be afraid of death, for death is that moment when the spirit remembers it is eternal and it was only playing at being temporary. While you are still in this temporary form called personality, the physical self, practice seeing if you can experience remembering why you are playing with form. Then there will be light in your life. Then you will know that all the learning, practicing, trying and seeking was to bring you to this moment of remembering. Peace.
