

The Light Path
Lecture #4 of Year Three

The Light Beings Speak

I ask the divine light guide us and protect us. I call forth the beings of light and love, truth and wisdom. And I ask now that all that we need for the divine enfoldment of our souls, on all levels of our existence, manifest peacefully and lovingly.

Dearest Ones, we want you to know that all that you plan in your life is connected, not just to your spiritual, creative self but also to the vast creative consciousness of the universe. Each time you plan to take a positive action, you activate the charged thoughts and the stored energy of the universe to become available to you in this plane. You do not create out of emptiness.

It is also true that when you plan to hurt someone or take a negative action towards someone or yourself, you activate the shadow part of yourself and the energy that is stored in the collective that supports destruction. Remember, the collective consciousness is a neutral storage area of consciousness. It is only when it is infused with the universal spirit, with God's love, that what is magnetized in the collective becomes useful in positive actions.

We want to remind you that each of you is a creator of the collective consciousness. When you plot in yourself, or put full intention into carrying something out and infuse it with emotion, you are creating the collective. You are creating earth, not just yourself. The goal for you in your spiritual path is not just personal peacefulness, or salvation, or joy, but also to create a collective consciousness that supports peacefulness in everyone, joy as a natural state of existence, and love as the energy connecting everyone. Whether you are trying to solve a personal problem in your own life, or create a new opportunity at work or in your community, it is essential to come forward and claim the joy.

We also want to remind you that each time you receive from the collective consciousness, you help the flow of energy to move in dynamic ways.

So much energy, there is so much energy that needs to be actualized in a creative way. We want to call you forth to do this, to see yourselves as a great spiritual, creative, positive being, with full access to the universe. For that is how we see you, and that is how God sees you. If you take this into your own life and look at all the situations and relationships that may seem to overpower you, limit you or depress you, try to take these challenges as an opportunity to practice positive consciousness. Notice that in the acceptance of the negative of a situation, the energy field contracts and limits possibilities. But in each circumstance if you say, “What wisdom is available in the collective consciousness to handle this, and what aspect of my greater self is available to handle this?”, you are then opening the energy field for creative spirituality.

As we said in the beginning, you are not alone, you are only feeling alone when you contract the system. Breathe and open yourself to the magnificent energy available to you, even in the moments of dire earth circumstances.

If you have trouble doing this for yourself, you might be inspired if you knew that each time you open a contracted energy system and allow the love and light of the higher realms to become activated on earth, you also open the chords of access for all, for everyone.

You are important, loved and valued, and only you can activate the creative consciousness process for yourself. It’s there waiting, it’s available, and only you can activate it. Take care of yourselves.
